

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Coquitlam BC, April 29, 2002: Westwood Plateau Golf and Country Club has been ranked as the number five golf course for “Best in Customer Service” in North America, Hawaii and the Caribbean. In the May 2002 issue of Golf Digest Magazine, some 20,000 readers evaluated more than 6500 golf courses and from this survey Westwood Plateau Golf and Country Club was ‘Fifth Best’ out of all courses with a rating of 4.81. In addition, the facility was awarded 4 ½ stars in the overall category, placing it among the very best in Canada.

Golf Digest’s biennial feature, Best Places to Play in North America, Hawaii and the Caribbean, has been around since 1963 and is considered the “Rosetta stone for the public golfer”.

According to Golf Digest what constitutes the difference between a rating of five stars (“golf at its absolute best”) and a four star (“outstanding”) lies squarely within the hearts and minds of the magazines readers.

Westwood Plateau’s General Manager James Cronk says, “Our team members strive everyday to deliver exceptional experiences to our guests. We could not be happier and more proud of our employees, from our guest services staff, course maintenance personnel to our food servers and chefs, they are all deserving of this prestigious honour.”

Located 45 minutes from downtown Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, Westwood Plateau Golf and Country Club and The Golf Academy at Westwood Plateau are nestled on the side of Eagle Mountain in Coquitlam. Designed by renowned golf course architect Michael Hurdzan, Westwood Plateau is considered in the top ten daily fee courses in Canada, featuring 18 challenging holes that capture West Coast Mountain golf at its best.
